

Early Learning Center

Shalom,

The Early Learning Center had a lot of fun while we learned about Pesach and the story of Moses from his birth to becoming the leader of his people and guiding their exodus from Egypt.

Director, ELC

We learned about pyramids and how they were made, and about how the Israelite people worked as slaves to build them. Then the students created some pyramids of our own.

The ELC students learned about spring cleaning through the book Sammy Spider's First Passover which was written by Sylvia Rouss and illustrated by Katherine Janus Kahn. Then, we as a class did some of our own spring cleaning. In preparation for Pesach and our classroom seder, we found the chametz in our classrooms.

We were also grateful to PJ Library for sharing their Passover Walk posters, which were put up in the temple courtyard. On a beautifully warm and sunny day, we went out to read the story and learn more about the four questions for our classroom seder.

Rabba Kaya joined us to read our children's haggadah, with songs from Paul Zim. Rabba Kaya led the blessings for our seder and we all enjoyed singing Dayenu together to complete our seder meal.
