

Early Learning Center

Shalom,

Our Summer Camp 2023 experience was mostly sunny and mostly hot! Ten children attended our July camp week. About half were new students who will be joining us for pre-school in September. All had a joyful time playing with fellow students and meeting their teachers, Miss Tammy and Miss Elian.

Camp started each morning with outside activities on the playground.

On Tuesday, PJ Library Coordinator and TP congregant Dinah Berch arrived as the “ice cream fairy.”

After reading a book, she created ice cream sundaes with us.

On Thursday, we walked over to the Wentworth Senior Living Home for our Grand Pals program.

The children danced under colorful parachute fabric, and sang and clicked their rhythm sticks with the residents.

Friday, we played indoors in the Social Hall due to the stormy weather. Some of the campers rested after a week filled with so much fun! We enjoyed Shabbat together and waved goodbye for a few short weeks. The new school year begins Wednesday, September 6.
